Next up is upcoming events:

An important event is coming the undergraduate amendments are going to be discussed during a meeting from registrar on the 18th of September at the KSU Common Room at 4.30pm.

Next up is the most awaited part, Chris will be leading with the RAR results.

Christian Aquilina | KSU Secretary General: If you want to keep the same office that you previously had, you need to speak to the organisation to which it is currently allocated to.

If you already payed the €80 deposit last year, you can just pay the €10 deposit.
By Sunday 22nd September you need make sure to clear out your things from the office, if the office allocated to you have changed.

If you have any queries about the RAR results, you may ask for a revision and if you don't agree with the revised result you can appeal the result by not longer than 10 days after the first revision has been done.

Christian Aquilina | KSU Secretary General: Celine and Daniela will take over for the reservations of the Freshers stands.

Celine Bartolo | KSU Vice President: Firstly, well done to those who have participated in the RAR. Basically, how we are moving forward, we are going to book the stand according to the list behind us, we will call you and you will come down. We will read the contract briefly together and we will move forward with signing the contract and the choosing of the stands.

For those of you who are unable to pay today, can pay until the end of this week at the KSU office.

The opening hours of the office are from Monday to Thursday 9 am till 3 pm and on Friday from 9 am till 12 pm.

We will forward the timings when the VIPS will be going around stands, so make sure that there is someone present at the stand at that point in time.

The deposit will be withheld if any damages to the stands are done.

There are some regulations, which include there should be no selling of anything apart from membership cards, and there should be no sales representatives from any of your sponsors present on the stand either.

We can start.

Signing of Contracts.

Payment for Deposits.
